

Decision time for local councils and their "rip-off" 084 telephone numbers - update

This list details 96 of the "Payment Lines" operated for English local authorities, many by third party organisations. Some of those listed previously have since changed their numbers.

Each entry gives a link to the web page where the number is presently given. It also shows the rate of Service Charge (pence per minute), which will have to be declared from 1 July - see "ukcalling".

Calls to these numbers will also be subject to an Access Charge, set by the caller's telephone company. Rates currently declared include 10p per minute for BT and 44p per minute for EE (including Orange and T-Mobile).
