

fair telecoms campaign

press cutting

The campaign to make 101 calls free to caller – summary of publications

We seek to provide here links to the various Daily Telegraph items on this topic, along with our news releases and briefings, as the issue has developed.

Click on the image for the link:

Date	Item	Title
Tue, 30 Apr 19	The Telegraph	Why must we pay to report crime?' – Baroness Newlove queries 101 service and says anti-social behaviour out of control
Tue, 30 Apr 19	news release 	We support calls to make 101 free-to-caller
Wed, 1 May 19	The Telegraph	Government accused of profiting from victims' reporting crime by collecting VAT on 101 calls
Fri, 10 May 19	briefing 	Background to the need for calls to 101 to be made free-to-caller
Fri, 10 May 19	The Telegraph	Fees for 101 Police calls may be scrapped
Fri, 10 May 19	The Telegraph	101 calls should be free for everyone (Editorial)
Sat, 11 May 19	The Telegraph	More people to escape charges for reporting crimes on 101
Sat, 11 May 19	news release 	Making calls to 101 free-to-caller - comment on newly reported material and developments
Sat, 11 May 19	briefing 	Published non-emergency Police contact numbers as alternatives to 101
Tue, 14 May 19	The Telegraph	More than half the public back free 101 calls to report crimes, poll finds