

Supplementary information for:

The theatre and concert ticketing rip-off

The pages which follow provide additional detail for each of the entries on the lists given in The theatre and concert ticketing rip-off.

In each case, the entry is repeated as a hyperlink for the web page from which the relevant information was obtained.

This is followed by the relevant telephone numbers, along with the Service Charge component of the charge which applies to calls to each number. The Access Charge component (of up to 55p per minute) must be added to give the total call cost.

Where free-to-caller 080 numbers are referred to, these are also shown.
